

meet istanbul

the event

For many, Istanbul is home. For some it is a destination — the place they dream of coming and work hard to reach. And for a few, it is merely a temporary stay along life's journey.

Most people claim Islam, but God is doing great things in this city. People are hearing God's Word and accepting His Son. People who sought satisfaction in rules, achievements and worldly things are finding true joy in Him. These stories could be like your own. This could be your story.
