

“ Is God up there? Is He hearing Me? Is He pleased with my life? ”

Merve began to question her life.
“Is God up there? Is He hearing me?
Is He pleased with my life?”

Merve had a loving family, lots of friends and a good education. She was even going to the United States to get an M.B.A. But she was desperately lonely inside, despite all of her achievements.

When Merve came to America her host family showed her true fellowship with God and she began to envy that relationship.
